SABBATH SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY .- There was a large attendance yesterday afternoon at the North Broad Street Presbyterian Church, the occasion being the celebration of the eighth anniversary of the Sabbath Schools connected with it. In addition to the effective rendering of a number of beautiful soles and choruses by the main school, under the leadership of Mr. O. W. Miller the fine quartette choir of the Church, consisting of Miss H. M. Alexander, Mrs. D. S. Craven, Mr. T. Bishop, and Mr. A. R. Dutcher, was in attendance. "The Celestial City," a sole and chorus, was surg by the choir in magnificent style. The infant school sung a pretty little hvmn entitled "What does every good child say?" As the closing of the exercises a large and vary elegant bouquet was presented to MissHarpsen, the lady superintendent of the infant school, for her untiring devotion to the charge confided to her, and the gralifying schoess which has attended her efforts. Strong Drink Again in the Ascendant.—
The of of peace—the Anti-liquor law—which was paired over this bibulous, and, consequently, somewhat troubled community by legis/ative hands, was not allowed to spill yesterdly by some of our citizens. Notwithstanding that, in a stroll from the northeastern to the southwestern part of the city, the tavern degrs were seen barred to all intrusion, the schools closed for a seventh-day's rest, and little low groggeries giving forth no sounds of frunken bilarity, yet, by some means or other, hard drinkers found no lack of the potable. Many individuals were seen in an elevated spir fual, but flattened physical, condition. One, in a limp state and ignoble condition, was being wheeled to the Station in a hard looking bactow, while another had his drunken eulogy to the friendliness of a lamp-post cut short by the "laying on of hands" of certain tipstaves. The following table exhibits an increase of one funded per cent, in the arrests for drunkenhess over last Sabbatu:—

..128 STRAWBERRY EXHIBITION .- The great Strawberry Exhibition announced to take place at Hammonton, N. J., on the 5th of June, has, in consequence of the unripeness of the fruit, been postponed until Thursday, June 13. As an evidence of the great progress made in the direc-tion of small fruit culture in New Jersey, we are informed that in the township of Hammonton alone a greater number of acres are set apart to strawberry cultivation than in any other territory of similar extent in the United States. Ten years ago this now productive district was a waste wilderness. To day nearly a thousand acres are embraced in the strawberry plantations, all in full bearing, and the appearance presented by them is beautiful in the extreme, and is well worth a visit by those who have any fondness for small fruit culture. who have any fondness for small fruit culture. The New York Farmers' Ciub, together with a number of prominent horticulturalists from our own city and vicinity, will be in attendance at the exhibition, which, from the present promising appearance of the crop, will be a very fine one. Whenever these poison-mongers are discovered they are immediately prosecuted by the proprietors, who expend thousands of dollars annually in tracing them out and bringing them to justice. Within a short time Injunctions have been obtained in the Courts of the United States against a number of individuals and firms, and suits are now in progress against several others, all of whose names will be given to the public. MUNICIPAL ELECTION IN WASHINGTON.

How the Colored Men Vote-Exciting Scenes and Incidents, Etc. [SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE EVENING THEEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, June 3.

The municipal election is proceeding quietly o-day, and the result will show a large Republican majority. The colored people were out at 2 A. M. marching through the wards with bugies and houns, rallying the colored voters to the poils.

At some of the polling precincts the colored voters were in line, four abreast, to the number of one thousand, as early as four o'clock A. M., and up to 12 o'clock they have almost entire possession of the poils in several of the Wards, as the whites refuse to fall into line with them. In the Seventh Ward, where the negroes are largely in the preponderance, they have camped down on the line of the poils with umbrellas and refreshments, prepared to wait all day for their turn to vote. In this ward the colored vote is so heavy that it will be impossible for all registered to vote before the poils close.

CAMDEN AFFAIRS.

More Light, —Something was evidently out of order at the Camben Gas Works last night, as the several churches the congregations had to be dismissed without worship, for want of light. In the private residences the same want was experienced, and no doubt many who expected to have a chit chair by gas light were either compelied to go to bed, or enjoy their conversation in the dark. Lovers may have liked it, but all are not lovers, and hence there was a great deal of complaint. We hope it will not occurringle. If it does the altention of Councils will be called to it. be called to it.

FAST DRIVING .- A man was arrested on Saturday by Officer Mason for running into and smasting a wagon on Market street. The individual was drunk and could not guide his horse streight. He was locked up and allowed to sleep off the effects of the whitsky he had imbibed, and was then fined and released.

New Street.—Rapid progress is being made in rening Delaware street, which will be a great public benefit, and ere long the communication between the Market and Federal Street Ferries will be perfect, and a long joint will be avoided by those who happen to miss the boat at either ferry.

IMPROVEMENTS .- About twenty houses are in course of crection in different parts of Camden, and more are in contempiation—the ground for which will be broken in a few days.

A boy named George Miller, seventeen years of age, who was captured by the Blackfeet in 1885, and stolen by the Cheyennes on the following year, had escaped and reached Denver. He reports that five women are held captive, one of them the wife of a doctor at Council Bluffs. The Indians keep thoroughly posted in regard to military movements. They have many Spencer rifles, procured from traders. The Indians contemplate a general and simultaneous attack along the Platte River early in June. The Indian Commissioner, Judge Kinney and party, was attacked at Bridges' Ferry on the 15th. Captain Willis, with troops, pursued and recovered all the stock, and killed one Indian.
